

Burnie NYE Carnival promises an action-packed event

Laura Smith

The Burnie New Year's Eve Sports Carnival is back for another year with a jam-packed day of competition and entertainment for the whole family.

Gates will open at 10am, with events starting from 11:30am at West Park Oval on Friday December 31.

With more than 450 competitors entered in the carnival and 130 events, Burnie Athletic Club president Gary Munro said it will be a day of non-stop action.

BIG DAY OUT: The Burnie New Year's Eve Carnival promises to be a jam packed event for people of all ages to enjoy.

"We have had a significant increase in competitor numbers this year, promising some great action," he said.

Mr Munro said the carnival would be a great day out for families.

"We will have plenty of kids entertainment, along with the Point Bar facilities and a number of food vendors."

Kingston based organisation, The Circus Studio, will be providing fun activities for kids to enjoy at the carnival.

There will also be a jumping castle in operation on the day.

The carnival will include a fireworks display at 9:30pm.

The carnival is subject to COVID safety planning and masks will be required to be worn by all patrons over the age of 12.